The MDP will engage UCI students from all disciplines in five-member design teams, co-mentored by at least two faculty mentors from different schools. Participants will have the opportunity to choose from a variety of innovative and creative design projects related to the areas of energy, the environment, healthcare, and culture.

Benefits Include:

- Multidisciplinary design teams
- Faculty co-mentoring
- Partial funding from Calit2
- Faculty-led seminars
- Team success skill workshops
- Reserved working/meeting space
- Presentation opportunities
- Career experience

Who Should Apply?

Applicants should be high-achieving UCI undergraduate or graduate students, in any discipline, with a strong drive to pursue multidisciplinary research as part of a team of students with different backgrounds and skills.
